

A Call to Prayer

Burkina Faso, Operation 9
Target city: Bobo-Dioulasso
Subdivision: Belle-ville

“Those who sow in tears will reap with songs of joy. He who goes out weeping, carrying seed to sow will return with songs of joy carrying sheaves with him.”

Ps. 126:5-6

We sow in hope. We trust God for the results. The waiting is often a time of problems and difficulties. For some hope withers and fails. For some it is a time of anxiety and frustration. For others it is a time of anticipation of what will take place. We experience some of these each time we send a team to Burkina. Each time there is the anticipation and wonder at what God will do through those who are sent. Each time we receive the news with thanksgiving because each time there has always been reason to celebrate – new believers, blessings and encouragement to keep working and sending.

For Pastor Daniel N’Goran (French CBH Speaker) this is his turn to go. He volunteered to go during the Christmas holidays. He leaves behind his family Zita, Nicanor, and Priscille. It is not easy but it is done with the advancement of the Kingdom of God in mind. May the Lord bless these efforts! We anticipate Daniel’s return and the results.

Requests:

1. Travel & safety for Daniel and peace and assurance for the family.
2. An increase in new believers.
3. An increase in the sense of community and unity among those who attend.
4. Identification of local leaders to shepherd this new congregation.
5. Prayer and financial support for church plants in Burkina Faso.

Praises:

1. For God’s servants in Côte d’Ivoire who are willing to deny themselves and go out to carry the Good News of that First Advent of our Lord Jesus to others beyond their borders – to these who have recently received their salvation and those who still wait to hear!
